korean heritage in ontario pdf - Ontario is home to about 80,000 Korean Canadians. Koreans started to migrate to Ontario after the devastating Second World War (1939-1945) and Korean War (1950-1953), both of which heavily affected the Korean peninsula. Korean Canadians have made important contributions to the economic, political, social and cultural fabric of Ontario's society. Wed, 18 Nov 2020 13:09:00 GMT
